

This post was shunted into Promotions, while it started in Discussions. Kovach didn't do it. So who had the motivation to do so?

Even as we welcome Pam Danner to head up the HUD Code MH Program, you simply have to wonder what Danny Ghorbani was thinking when he sent out his 'welcome message,' please see link above.

Do you think this is the way you say 'Welcome aboard Pam?'

Your take on how this helps - or harms - MHARR's own efforts?

Just a tip for you Pam. Beware of a wolf in sheep clothing. This is another case of Tony K. calling the kettle black. My experience reading Tony K.'s postings the past 3 years is that he has this way of distorting or twisting others words into something they were never meant to be. All for his own self purpose of using those twisted truths to attack the person in such away as to his own self benefit.

It is always appears to me that Tony's sole purpose in life is his own self aggrandizement. Just click on the link to the Tunica Mississippi's web site promotion. You will see the speaker promos (that Tony writes of course) repeatedly refers to himself in some form of "Super Tony" description.

I read Danny Ghorbani's words and he spoke very highly of your qualifications Pam and clearly pointed out that his concern was not about you or you skills but about the diversion from protocol on which this position was to be filled.

Tony K. attacking Danny is unwarranted and just typical of how Tony turns on anyone and everyone Pam when he see an opportunity throw dirt on someone for his own betterment.

So enjoy the momentary warm and fuzzy Pam as you are just a TK perception away to be awash in the muck that he eventually shovels on everyone.

Oh, one more thing. He does have his fingers on the kill switch in this group as when someone calls him out then it is not long before that post disappears.

MP,

How humorous, and yet twisted. So who sent this discussion into Promotions? Not I, but then that is how you and your friends like to behave.

Let's see you prove a single thing you've alleged.

More on topic,

Thanks Rick for your commentary, it has been very popular reading.

Michael Power is a routine personality at George Allen functions. Allegedly:

- After Tony Kovach declined Power's desire to publish free articles, Power has since that time made numerous comments, much like the one above.
- Allen is always great in Power's LinkedIn statements, Tony is routinely awful, is the gist of it.
- As Marty Lavin has from time to time opined in general, "Follow the money."
- The same issues of False, Misleading Statements and Tortuous Interference? could be applied here?
