When the Earth Shook – Looking at Legality of U.S. Strike at Fordow and Iranian Nuclear Sites in Context; What’s Next? FEA plus, Sunday Weekly Manufactured Housing Industry Headlines in Review

When big bombs drop, the earth shakes. Historians and others can and should discuss and debate various unconstitutional behavior by various members of the U.S. Federal Government, which includes presidents since at least the Civil War (a.k.a.: “the War Between the States”). Members of both major parties have often behaved badly, as the Biden-Harris (D) Administration recently demonstrated with four years of open borders and failures to properly enforce federal laws as well as their failure to properly enforce laws that could have benefited manufactured housing the Joe Biden as a U.S. Senator co-sponsored and voted to enact. It seems that the years needed to get a law passed and then the years needed to potentially get laws enforced are two different things.

Stating the obvious, this installment of facts-evidence-analysis (FEA) this topic is an example of "News through the lens of manufactured homes and factory-built housing." © If, God forbid, that matters in the Middle East spiraled out of control, or caused serious economic disruption in the U.S., there is a need for a point of reference in our near-term or longer-term reporting.

The U.S. has arguably been in a de facto state of war against elements of the Iranian regime since the Jimmy Carter (D) era. During the Carter years, inflation soared, gas lines and rationing became 'a thing' in the U.S., that former and late president committed to giving away the Panama Canal, and the U.S. embassy in Iran was seized. Carter was a one term president.

Declassified documents painted a mixed picture of U.S. international behavior under Carter, which years of subsequent events under Presidents Ronald Reagan (R), George Bush (R), William “Bill” Clinton (D), Bush-Cheney (R), Barack Obama-Joe Biden (D) and their infamous pallets of cash to the Iranian regime and their JCPOA with Iran that never obtained Senate approval as is required by the Constitution ultimately frames.

Would we be talking about Fordo(w) if President Obama (D) not turned a blind eye to the plight of the Iranian people during the so-called Green Revolution? “The Iranian Green Revolution, also known as the 2009 Iranian election protests, took place in 2009. It was a series of protests that erupted after the disputed 2009 presidential election, where Mahmoud Ahmadinejad was declared the winner.” = Google's Gemini, citing left-leaning Wikipedia.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=fqHhLy6KOMo>

That Green movement and the periodic uprisings in Iran since then have been brutally put down by their radical Islamic supporting regime, which has been labeled by some as the largest state sponsor of terror in the world.

President Trump recently announced his desire to have a special counsel probe the 2020 election for apparent illegalities. That is a reminder to those grounded in history that going back to President John F. Kennedy (D), dirty tricks and arguably illegal behavior was used to get presidents ‘elected.’

As Shadows of Liberty reminds us, during the Bush-Cheney (R) era, apparent lies and distortions were used to mobilize support for wars in the Middle East that began with Afghanistan later included a coalition attack of Iraq.

Some sources have reported that during the Obama-Biden (D) years more nations were bombed or hit by drones, missiles, aircraft, or other American forces than at any time since WW II. How many of those attacks during their 8 years in office had constitutionally required approvals from Congress?

There is an array of reminders that the way the law is supposed to work in the Republic of the United States is routinely different than how it actually performs. That’s a troubling reality.

So, as Republicans and Democrats have already begun to weigh in for or against the attacks against Iranian nuclear facilities, this should be recalled. Iran's radical leaders have led decades of promising and chanting “Death to America!” or “Death to Israel!” That historical context is necessary. Years of largely open borders have allowed into our country untold numbers of illegal immigrants; some of whom can be reasonably be expected to be sleeper cell terrorists. Those are among the sobering thoughts to keep in mind.

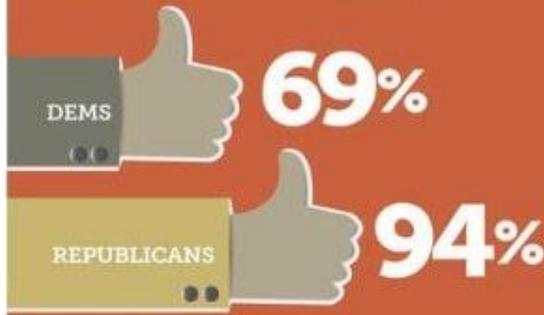

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=hqu0L0PGOlw>

Some argue that Abraham Lincoln's violations of the Constitution saved the Union. Be that as it may, the treacherous history of Democrats who defended slavery, some of whom opposed the Civil and Voting Rights Acts, included demonstrably racist presidents like Woodrow Wilson (D) and Lyndon Banes Johnson (D), are part of a pattern of manipulation of much of the public interest in favor of the beliefs and bias of special interests.

THE VOTING RIGHTS ACT
OF 1965

The Radiance Foundation celebrates one of the most significant pieces of civil rights legislation which was signed into law on August 6, 1965 to reinforce and expand what had already been made law by the 15th Amendment. No one could use racial discrimination to prevent Americans from voting. Violators would be prosecuted. The Voting Rights Act, or VRA, was justice that was long overdue.

Certainly, the Rahm Emanuel dictum of ‘Never Let a Good Crisis Go to Waste’ has been used to fuel various crises - often by ignoring the law and Constitution - knowing the eruption of a crisis could allow more power to be consolidated into the hands of the various special interests that more or less run the United States of America (USA)!

An often-fawning media carried the beat of the drums for the 21st Century Middle Eastern wars. Something similar occurred during the first Bush Administration in the 1990s, which the nation was being led by a former CIA director (i.e.: Bush). An ambassador for the first Bush Administration (R) reportedly green-lighted an Iraqi invasion of Kuwait, and then later turned on Iraq for doing what Team Bush ok'd.

Time may reveal if President Trump's strike ordered on 6.21.2025, the longest day of the year as measured by hours of daylight, was brilliant or not. There are disputed claims about the effectiveness of the bombing of Fordow (a.k.a.: Fordo), with Natanz and Isfahan nuclear sites struck too. Again, time will tell.

Facts matter. Evidence matters. Applied common sense analysis matters too. So, we should not forget the history of the run up to the events of yesterday.

There is blood on the hands of any number of past people who, right or wrong, occupied the Oval Office at 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue since the Wilson (D) era. The history of wars the U.S. has been involved in since the Spanish American War is often marked by evidence of subterfuge employed to get the U.S. military involved.

Many of our nation's social, economic, political, cultural, and religious traditions - including but not limited to the subject of affordable housing - have been the product of often twisted rationalizations to ignore laws and human rights in order to achieve some perceived benefits for this or that powerful and well-connected special interests. There is not only a military industrial complex, but also an affordable housing complex, a healthcare-insurance industry complex, and so one.

In order to have a more perfect Union, we need a properly engaged and informed citizenry.

This writer is among those who believes in the need to vote and do so wisely and properly informed. But let's not kid each other. The system has been more or less rigged in favor of the few at great cost to the many since at least the Wilson (D) era.

History can tell us a great many things. But only to those willing to take the time to sort out what's occurred and why, history can be weaponized by paltering, red hearings, strawmen arguments, and other logical fallacies that are told with such boldness and vigor as to be believed by sufficient numbers that allow this system to operate as it does.

History in housing, and in the battle to allow millions of people the right to have the kind of home that they can afford without undo roadblocks has been a roughly 80 year struggle in the U.S. Veterans returning from World War II were met with housing supportive programs, but as James Schmitz and others remind us, some were met with homelessness caused in part because more affordable factory-built housing methods were sidelined as a favor to conventional stick builders.

Postscript

When aerial assets struck Fordo and other nuclear sites in Iran at President Trump's order, China, Russia, North Korea, Cuba, Venezuela, and others are watching.

Lost in the headlines is an announced peace deal by Secretary of State Marco Rubio between Rwanda and Congo in Africa.

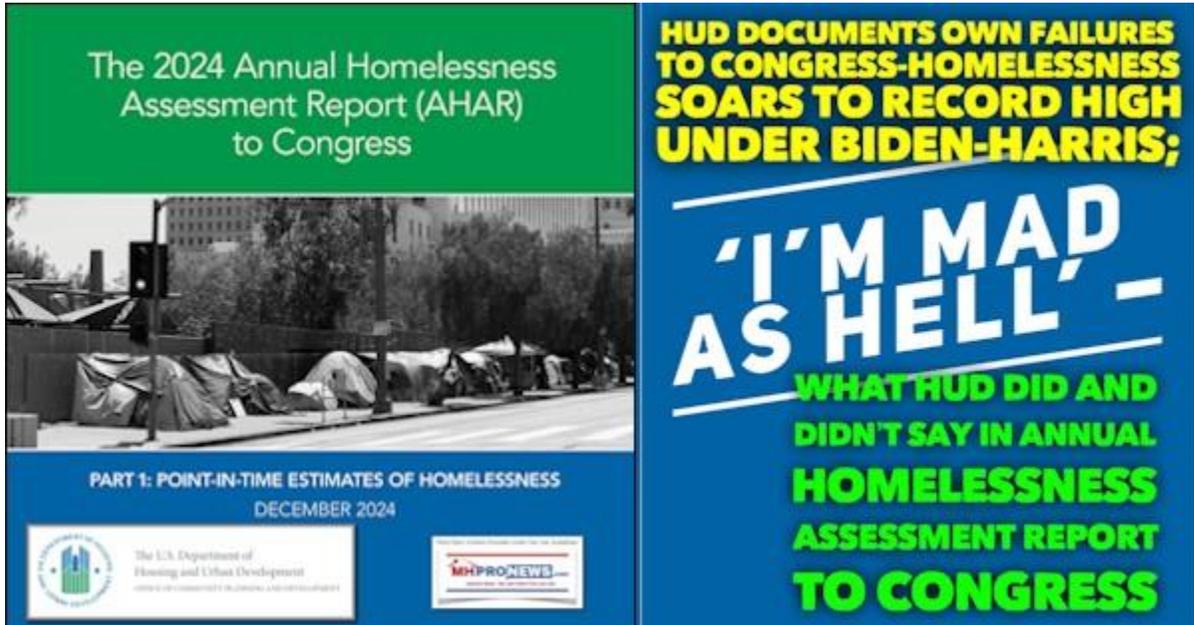

That follows on the peace between the nuclear powers of India and Pakistan.

If we judge President Trump for ordering an attack from above on Iran after decades of Iranian IED devices and proxies wounding and killing American military personnel in Iraq and elsewhere, we should also consider his peace efforts around the world too.

Biden-Harris (D) gave an open border to Trump-Vance (R) which the later pair has now closed.

Biden-Harris (D) grew the national spending and national debt, yet we have more homeless Americans than ever before in our national history?

Biden-Harris (D) was arguably corrupt and the cover ups of his health and (lack) of mental fitness during those years are ironically being exposed by former Democratic staffer Jake Tapper of CNN fame, who is with his co-author attempting to cash in on a book about the coverups. Only in America.

The 5 Rs

For generations, Americans were taught the importance of the 3Rs: Reading, wRiting, and aRithmetic. There should always have been a fourth R for religion and the fifth R of rational or logical thought. The R of Reading should have been understood as including the importance of authentic vs. manipulative history.

Reading is fundamental to authentic freedom.

True (vs. Ersatz) Religion and Rational thought are as fundamental as the other Three Rs.

History tells us George Washington was correct on this following point.

"Of all the dispositions and habits which lead to political prosperity, religion and morality are indispensable supports. In vain would that man claim the tribute of patriotism who should labor to subvert these great pillars of human happiness...reason and experience both forbid us to expect that national morality can prevail in exclusion of religious principle."

Farewell Address

We are moving towards the Fourth of July. Let us re-dedicate ourselves to reading for understanding and using our minds to think clearly while being inspired by faith (religion) to seek a meaningful path to peace and prosperity.

It has been said that Jesus was either Liar, Lunatic, Legend, or Lord. He wasn't merely some nice wandering rabbi. "The Chosen" video series may be a dramatization that veers into clearly contradictory realms, but at least it makes the effort to present to a new generation what was occurring in the Holy Lands nearly 2000 years ago that uses a Biblical and historical perspective. The Chosen is respectful of Judaism.

When the radical and theocratic Iranian regime lobbed missiles at Israel, one of them ironically struck a mosque and reportedly injured the imams in it. Hmm. Food for thought?

This writer posted 2 days ago on the Patch reasons to prefer that Israel be allowed to do what they claimed they could do. Was Trump's signal to the world by attacking those three nuclear sites in Iran the right decision? Time will tell if President Trump was correct. Until then, we must keep in mind that media (social media, the press, etc.) has been used for decades to divide “We the People” because division and strife are apparently deemed useful to the powers that be.

We as a people should and must wake all the way up. We must use our minds, read to get and stay informed, use our free will properly, and pray that God help us one and all.

What's next? God alone knows. There are any number of scenarios possible. Those with ties inside Iran - like Mahyar Tousi - are saying that they want regime change, but that can't happen while bombs are dropping. Some of what he says is course, but his YouTube videos are less so.

Dear @MarioNawfal, Maryam Rajavi is NOT the Iranian opposition leader.

She's a leader of a small terrorist group that promotes Marxism and Islamism. No normal Iranian supports this terrorist organisation inside and outside of Iran.

China needs Iranian oil. Sources in Iran say that some parts of the country have large numbers of Chinese there. The Fordo(w) nuclear facility reportedly had some Russian technicians. It would be naive to not take the role of those countries into the calculations that are occurring in Isreal, the U.S., Iran, and other capitals around the world.
