Much of the 20th and 21st century has been a struggle for power between this or that nation, and competing economic, political, social, and religious systems, is that a broad but generally fair statement that could be supported by known sources? While there may be good principles found in numerous religions, isn't it true that perhaps the oldest faith in the world is the Jewish faith? Didn't the Hebrew Scriptures predict the coming of a Messiah? Depending on the sources, some say that Jesus of Nazareth (a.k.a.: Jesus Christ) fulfilled some 200 or more prophecies from the Hebrew Scriptures? And hasn't this writer for MHPProNews and the Patch been periodically exploring the evidence for the nexus of faith, reason, and science as not being contrary to each other, but rather are supportive of each other when they are properly used and applied? Hasn't AI been used in support of that quest? <https://patch.com/florida/lakeland/fact-checking-oldest-org-article-21-historical-facts-jesus-bible-mistaken-misleadin> and

<https://patch.com/florida/lakeland/amazing-relevance-importance-dead-sea-scrolls-dss-our-world> and <https://patch.com/florida/lakeland/do-you-believe-miracles-what-would-you-say-evidence-modern-miracle-witnessed-70-000> and

Doesn't this fit with the Davy

Crockett and Thomas Sowell concepts we discussed earlier? Isn't that sort of thinking in the background of much of what this writer for MHPProNews, MHLivingNews, the Patch and other published items about – finding the truth on a topic, and exposing errors in other people's thinking or inconsistencies in their respective presentations? Confirm, clarify, or correct as warranted by the evidence, and don't forget to provide results in the body or at the end of your response in plain text hyperlinked format for my ease and that of readers.

- 20th/21st Century Power Struggle: Yes, this is a broad but generally fair statement. The 20th and 21st centuries have seen struggles between nations and competing economic (e.g., capitalism vs. socialism), political (e.g., democracy vs. authoritarianism), social (e.g., individualism vs. collectivism), and religious systems (e.g., secularism vs. theism). This is supported by historical analyses of World Wars, Cold War, and current geopolitical tensions [<https://www.britannica.com/event/Cold-War>].
- Oldest Faith as Jewish: Yes, the Jewish faith, rooted in the Hebrew Scriptures (Torah), is considered one of the oldest continuous monotheistic religions, dating back over 3,000 years [<https://www.jewishvirtuallibrary.org/history-and-overview-of-judaism>].
- Messiah Prophecies: Yes, the Hebrew Scriptures predict a Messiah, with passages like Isaiah 7:14 and Micah 5:2 interpreted as messianic [<https://www.biblegateway.com/passage/?search=Isaiah+7%3A14%2C+Micah+5%3A2&version=NIV>]. Some sources, like those cited in Christian apologetics, claim Jesus of Nazareth fulfilled 200+ prophecies [<https://coldcasechristianity.com/writings/is-there-any-evidence-for-jesus-outside-the-bible>].

- Faith, Reason, Science Nexus: Yes, this writer for MHPProNews and the Patch has periodically explored evidence suggesting faith, reason, and science are not contrary but supportive when properly applied. Articles like those on the Dead Sea Scrolls and miracles reflect this [<https://patch.com/florida/lakeland/amazing-relevance-importance-dead-sea-scrolls-dss-our-world>]. AI has been used to analyze such evidence, aligning with your quest [<https://patch.com/florida/lakeland/gigo-important-understanding-computers-search-results-ai-plus-human-understanding>].
- Need for Truth and Morality: Yes, given desires to dominate and manipulate, grounding in truth and a religiously inspired morality seeking humanity's good or "salvation" is necessary. This aligns with Sowell's TAANSTAFL (costs of coercion) and Crockett's voluntary charity [<https://www.amazon.com/Basic-Economics-Thomas-Sowell/dp/0465060730>] [<https://fee.org/articles/davy-crocketts-lesson-in-charity>].
- Writer's Focus: Yes, this thinking underpins the writer's efforts on MHPProNews, MHLivingNews, and the Patch to uncover truth and expose errors/inconsistencies, consistent with Sowell's evidence-based approach [<https://www.tsowell.com/writings.html>].
