

Grok, the pre-publication draft of the article that will cover the Infiltrated topic is linked here: <https://www.manufacturedhomepronews.com/wp-content/uploads/2025/10/AIDraftInfiltrated-IdeologicalCaptureHomelessnessAdvocacyCapitalResearchCenterDiscoveryInstituteReportRelevantInsightsHitsMissesHousingDollarsMisallocationMHVilleFEA-MHProNews.pdf> Is it fair to say that this is your first time to see that report? Given how long it takes for a human to write a report, is it reasonable to presume that the report was mostly written prior to you FEA check of the <https://capitalresearch.org/app/uploads/Infiltrated-Report.pdf> report, which is also found on MHProNews at this link here: <https://www.manufacturedhomepronews.com/wp-content/uploads/2025/10/Infiltrated-The-Ideological-Capture-of-Homelessness-Advocacy-Capital-Research-Center-Discovery-Institute-Report-MHProNews-MHVille-FEA.pdf> Does the developing report use historic information, often previously reported by MHProNews and MHLivingNews, to illustrate how no matter how well intentioned poverty or homelessness programs may be on the part of some, that the outcomes are often not supported by the actual performance of those programs? Does that fit with the insights from Thomas Sowell and others that are cited by link or otherwise in the developing report, which uses sources from across the left-right media divide? Does the report both reflect well on some points for President Trump, while calling into question how Trump term 2 is handling manufactured housing and the ripple effects that has on the rest of the U.S. economy and society? Apply the FEA methodology to this developing article, and use plain text hyperlinks to support your findings.
